The Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 ('Code') is a key economic reform of the Government, providing the much needed unified legal framework to resolve insolvency and provide faster and efficient exit framework for corporates. The Code through its time bound processes aims at providing greater certainty around the bankruptcy process and also bring the Indian statutory regime at par with some of the most legally advanced jurisdictions of the world.

This is the ninth month since commencement of the provisions relating to corporate insolvency in the Code. In its endeavor to facilitate better understanding of intricacies of this Code, share the experiences gained during these nine months and also discuss the challenges that need to be overcome, the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA), National Foundation for Corporate Governance (NFCG) and Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India (IBBI) are organizing a National Conference on Insolvency and Bankruptcy: Changing Paradigm on 19 August 2017 from 1000 hrs at Taj Mahal Palace, Apollo Bunder, Mumbai.
